UK - Myson

- Accurate temperature control
- Aesthetic finish
- Seamless installation
- Durable design
- Versatile applications

Description

Two-pipe angled valve set available in white or chrome. The valve matches Myson radiators with middle connection centre to centre 50mm.

Area of Application

The Valve Set Vertical is suitable for 2-pipe heating systems, designed for both domestic and commercial settings. It is ideal where precise control of environmental temperature is required.

Selection Criteria

Use a Heat Demand Calculator to determine the required heat output from our range of vertical radiators.

Basic User Instructions

Install the valve set by attaching it to the middle connection of the compatible radiator with a centre-to-centre distance of 50mm. Ensure the system is depressurized before installation. Use appropriate sealing materials to avoid leaks. Adjust settings according to the system requirements.
